

The London Bridge Ensemble has a flexible line-up and can be engaged in various forms. The ensemble comprises musicians of the highest calibre with a collective wealth of experience, and will adapt with ease to your particular interests; indeed, the London Bridge Ensemble gives priority to listening to your needs and to constructing a programme accordingly.

The full London Bridge Ensemble with Voice (violin, viola, cello, piano and baritone) can offer a variety of programmes. With the addition of one of the guest violinists or double bass players that they work with on a regular basis, they are also very happy to offer a programme for six musicians. Similarly you may prefer a programme of music for four players including voice. Please see below the example programmes including voice, for four, five and six players.

Alternatively, you may like to consider the London Bridge Piano Trio or the London Bridge Piano Quartet
