Music From Vienna

The London Bridge Ensemble present a century-and-a-half of music from the hub of European culture, retraced through history; from Webern's expressionism, through the contrasting Romantic voices of Mahler and Schubert, back to the Classical masterpieces of that unmatched operatic maestro, Mozart.

Webern: Three Little Pieces for Cello and Piano, Op. 11; 4 Pieces for Violin and Piano, Op. 7; 2 Pieces for Cello and Piano (1899) - Mahler: Piano Quartet Movement in A minor - Schubert: Heine Lieder from Schwanengesang D957 - Schubert songs: Abendröte, D690; Die Vögel, D691; Die Gebüsche, D646; Im Walde, D708 - Mozart: Piano Quartet in E flat major, K493

The London Bridge Ensemble is one of Britain's most exciting and brilliant chamber groups. The name London Bridge Ensemble represents the group's special ability to bring together different musical genres and styles as well as an admiration for the English music of the early twentieth century. They have recorded two CDs of works by Frank Bridge for Dutton as well as a recording of Schumann for Sonimage, all of which have been highly praised by the critics; the ensemble's second Bridge disc was shortlisted for the Gramophone Chamber Music Award 2011. Their next release, also on Sonimage, features works by Fauré. In 2012 the ensemble gives a series of concerts in Portugal, and will also present their fifth annual Winchester Chamber Music Festival.
